Welcome Home

This house has been beautifully modernised and offers elegant, contemporary family living throughout. Extensively modernised in the last two years you will find an impressive family home. The front door opens to an elegant, light hallway. Fresh light décor offers a perfect welcome and white walls are complemented by grey wash wood effect flooring – perfect for busy families. Wood panelling below the stairs and a stain glass landing window add to the appeal. The front reception room has a bow window and contemporary wooden surround to the fireplace with flagged hearth creates a cosy focal point to the room. The grey wash wood effect flooring extends through the living spaces creating a sleek, polished feel to the styling. An under stair storage cupboard adds additional space.

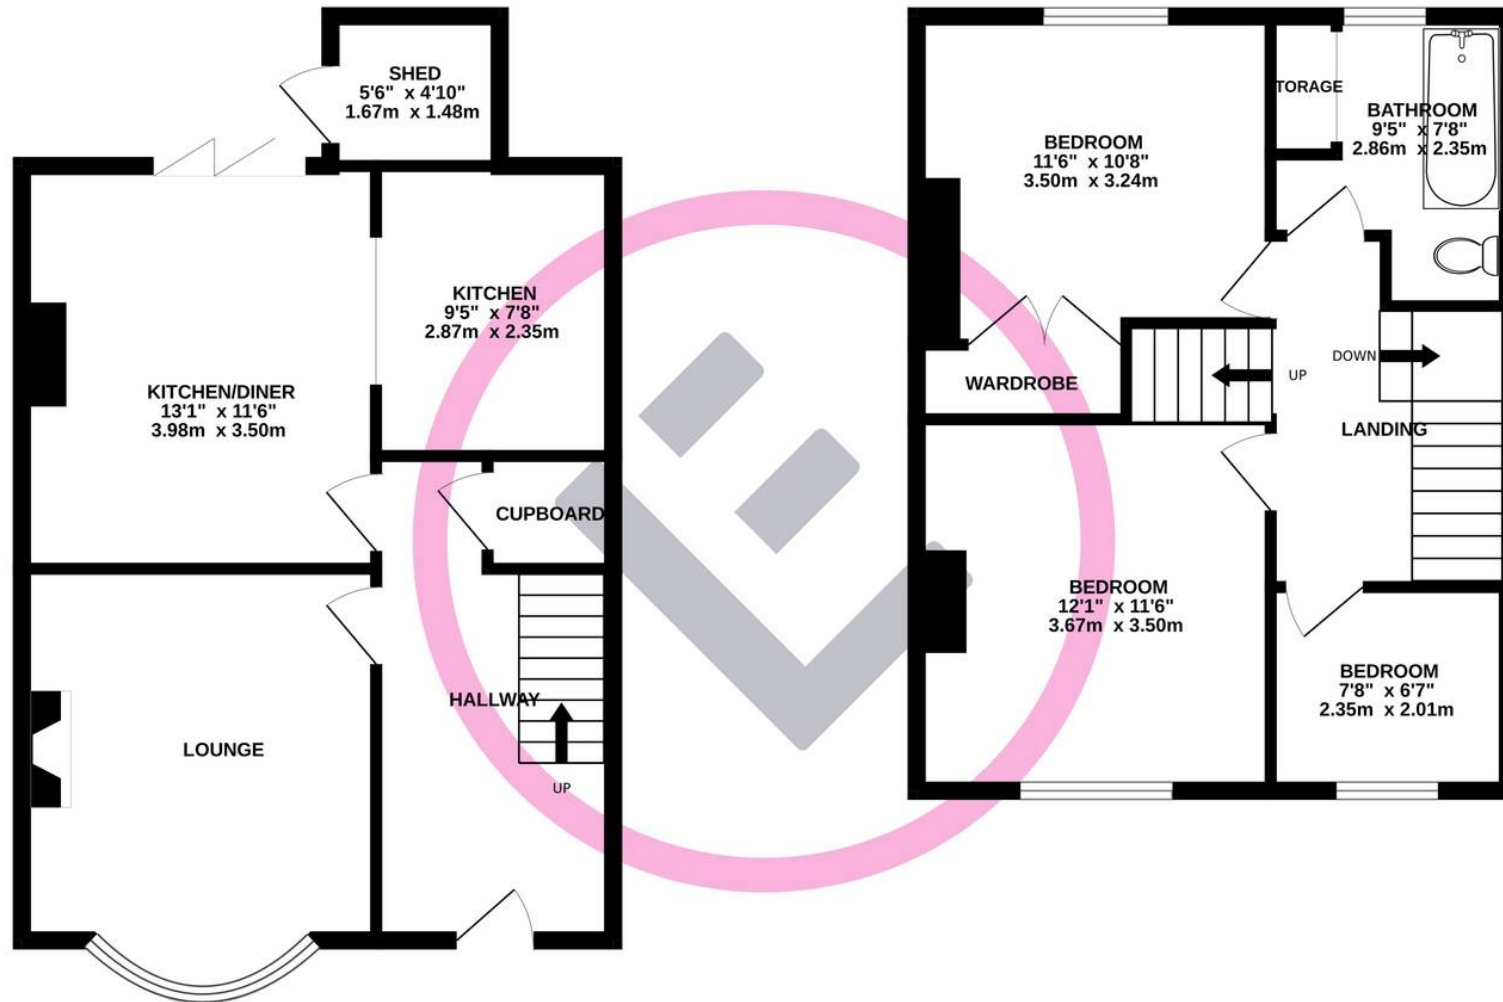

Open Plan Living

The rear dining room is open plan with the stylish kitchen. Bi-fold doors open from the dining area to the rear garden creating the perfect space for entertaining and making the most of long summer evenings at home. The kitchen is modern and offers a generous range of cream coloured cabinets with a complementing wood effect work top. Splash backs are tiled and there is space for a large range style cooker and space and plumbing for a large fridge freezer. There is also plumbing for a dish washer. The shed that is attached to the house at the rear has power sockets.
